

A Little WhoPunt?

We at Scribes know how grateful we are for the occasional distraction. Especially when we have melted our eyeballs to the screen in the course of a long working day, so we hope you enjoy the first of our newsletters.

We love this! That incredibly prolific author (Anon) has been at it again.

We all know that communication is a keystone of good business, but we can easily overlook something as simple as proof-reading a document before it is sent. A single word in the wrong place, or one spelt incorrectly, can completely alter the meaning or intent of your message.

This fantastic wordplay is, perhaps, a very clever reminder of the importance of being careful. It also proves your average spell-checker is not as infallible as we all like to think! Enjoy.

Eye halve a spelling checker;
It came with my pea sea.
It plainly marks four my revue,
Miss steaks eye kin knot sea.

Eye strike a key and type a word,
And weight four it two say,
Weather eye am wrong oar write;
It shows me strait a weigh.

As soon as a mist ache is maid,
It nose bee fore two long.
And eye can put the error rite;
Its rare lea ever wrong.

Eye have run this poem threw it;
I am shore your pleased two no,
Its letter perfect awl the weigh.
My spell checker tolled me sew!

International Virtual Assistants Day is TODAY!

Yes that's right.

In recognition of the fact that there are now over 20,000 registered and recognised VA s operating in cyberspace, a day of celebration and a weekend of online conferencing is now an annual event.

In the tradition of International Secretaries Day the industry takes the time to recognise and reward the hard-working and highly motivated individuals who have done so much to establish and promote the world of the Virtual Assistant.

It is also an invaluable opportunity for the (global) neighbourhood of businesses to network and meet prospective clients. Scribes Secretarial Services will be raising a cyber-glass of champers in recognition!

Until the next time!
